

SCARS OF SOLITUDE

The Finest blend of Finnish Melancholy and Melodic Metal

Scars of Solitude is a quartet hailing from Middle Finland. In their music a wide range of metal genres shake hands with lyrics dealing with self-reflection, -loathing and -destruction. When typical melodic metal bands come marching to the stage clad in armour and swords drawn like leather wearing heroes, Scars of Solitude does the exact opposite. There's nothing heroic about them, just four guys on a mission to show you the futility of life through beautiful melodies and punchy grooves.
